Here is a brief history of the Catalano Produce Company

John and Anthony Catalano's great grandfather, Vincenz Catalano along with his four brothers, came over from Italy in 1884. From their initial fruit stand on Milwaukee Street the brothers also sold fruits and vegetables door-to-door throughout the neighborhood. By 1910 they became the largest wholesale distributors in Southeast Wisconsin, situated at 284 Broadway Street (according to the Milwaukee County Historical Society). Today, as we continue the tradition of offering top quality fruits and vegetables, we look back with gratitude on our ancestors who paved the way for us.
